

W. Gessmann GmbH
Mr. Drexel
Eppingerstr. 221
74211 Leingarten

Declaration of Confidentiality

Dear Mr. Drexel,

with reference to your enquiry, we would like to tell you that we are committed to handling all bid documents provided to us in connection with the bid submission in strict confidentiality and to keep confidential the content of the documents, as well as other facts that come to our knowledge in a different manner and are related to your plan and are not already apparent.

We are obliged to personally commit our staff to the protection of your plans confidentiality, as well.

This confidentiality obligation shall apply both during the bid submission period and bid evaluation, and during the delivery of the order, if awarded. Should we notice that the documents and information provided to us by you still leaked to third parties without your prior consent, we will report this to you without delay.

We shall be committed to return to you all bid documents provided to us immediately if it should turn out that we are not interested in submitting the bid or receive the notification during the tender process that we would not be taken into account. The documents shall stay in Your ownership and must not be copied without Your prior consent.

In case of a breach of these duties, we shall be obliged to pay a contractual penalty to you in the amount of EUR 10T. You shall be entitled to this regardless of any higher damage compensation claim beyond the scope thereof.

Yours faithfully

date / company stamp / signature